

Ask your partner questions about school:

Where/school?

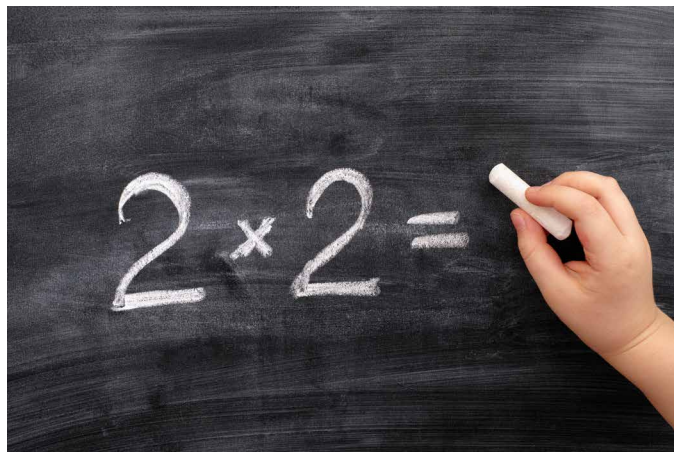

Like/school?

Favorite class? Why?

Describe the pictures to your partner. Your partner has to guess the school subject.

Describe the pictures to your partner. Your partner has to guess the school subject.

Your partner is a new student at your school. Tell your partner about the rules:

- . . . come to class late
- . . . talk when the teacher is talking
- . . . do their homework on time
- . . . stay after class for more help from their teacher
- . . . ask questions

Your partner is a new student at your school. Tell your partner about the rules:

- . . . use their cell phones in class
- . . . bring their books to class
- . . . eat food in class
- . . . wear nice clothes
- . . . pay attention in class

Ask: What do you think about . . .

. . . studying English?

It helps me improve communication skill. I confident when I use it

. . . learning a new language that's not English?

. . . watching TV in English or another language to help you learn?

. . . going to another country to study a language?

I will have many problems because I never know about it

It's good idea . I can just learn when I'm watching TV and I can relax after work

It's good idea.Example I want to learn English I'm going to America. At there I can practice English with more American. It helps me learn fast.

My favorite classes were computer and physics.

I hated chemistry and biology

1. What were your favorite classes in school? What classes did you hate? Why did you like/dislike them?

I like it because I want to become a software engineer.

I like it because It's too difficult for me.

2. What do you think you have to do to speak a second language well?

I think I have to practice speak every day. By the way, I have to communicate with native speakers because it help me improve pronounce.

3. Why is it important for you to study English?

Sometime. When I meet foreigner , they ask for direction But I can't answer for their. It's reason help me to study English

4. Imagine you are an English teacher. Tell your students what they have to do to be good students.

They have to practice speak English a lot. They have to do homework

5. Do you think learning languages is easy for you? Why or why not?

I have two reason. First, I don't understand when foreigner speak. Second, I pronounce wrong

6. Do you think you speak English well? What can you do to speak English better?

I think , there are 2 step. Step one: I have to practice speak from basic what same with my level.

Step two : I often listen to video English to can understand when foreigner speak.

First, say what a teacher would say about these things. Then say why a teacher would think that.

- | | | |
|-------------|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| You have to | 1. be on time for school | so you don't miss on tests |
| You have to | 2. eat a healthy breakfast | because It's good for you. |
| You have to | 3. do homework | because you go to school |
| You mustn't | 4. fall asleep in class | because the teacher gets angry |
| You mustn't | 5. forget books | because you can't read book |
| You have to | 6. work hard | so you get high score |