

Ask your partner questions about school:

Where/school?

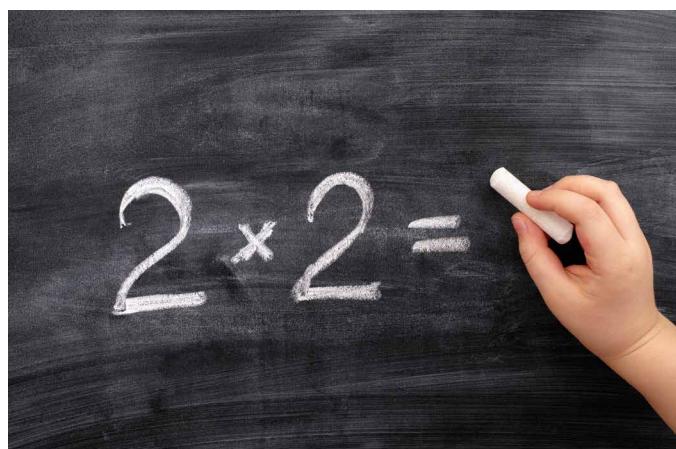

Like/school?

Favorite class? Why?

Describe the pictures to your partner. Your partner has to guess the school subject.

Describe the pictures to your partner. Your partner has to guess the school subject.

Your partner is a new student at your school. Tell your partner about the rules:

- ... come to class late
- ... talk when the teacher is talking
- ... do their homework on time
- ... stay after class for more help from their teacher
- ... ask questions

Your partner is a new student at your school. Tell your partner about the rules:

- ... use their cell phones in class
- ... bring their books to class
- ... eat food in class
- ... wear nice clothes
- ... pay attention in class

Ask: *What do you think about . . .

. . . studying English?

. . . learning a new language that's not English?

. . . watching TV in English or another language to help you learn?

. . . going to another country to study a language?

1. What were your favorite classes in school? What classes did you hate? Why did you like/dislike them?
2. What do you think you have to do to speak a second language well?
3. Why is it important for you to study English?
4. Imagine you are an English teacher. Tell your students what they have to do to be good students.
5. Do you think learning languages is easy for you? Why or why not?
6. Do you think you speak English well? What can you do to speak English better?

First, say what a teacher would say about these things. Then say why a teacher would think that.

1. be on time for school
2. eat a healthy breakfast
3. do homework
4. fall asleep in class
5. forget books
6. work hard