

Ask your partner about these different types of holidays.

Do you like _____?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

We / to the museum

You / to London

We / to the hotel

Mary / to the airport

Paulo / to work every day

We / get / by

A: Do you want to go (1) _____ the museum?

B: Yes. Let's take the subway. We can get (2) _____ it at Brooks Street.

A: I hate the subway. How about taking a bus? We can get (3) _____ the bus at 4th Street.

B: OK. And where do we get (4) _____ for the museum?

A: At Dunbar Avenue. Then we have to walk (5) _____ the museum from there.

B: That's a lot of walking! Let's just take a taxi. We can tell the driver to go (6) _____ the museum after we get (7) _____ the taxi. That way we can get (8) _____ the taxi right in front of the museum!

Read these sentences to your partner. Your partner listens and must make a question.

You are at a train station and you want to buy a ticket.

You want to know if the train comes frequently.

You want to know the time it takes to go from the train station to the museum.

Read these sentences to your partner. Your partner listens and must make a question.

You want to know the price of a room at a hotel.

You want to know if the hotel room is big.

You want to know if you can walk to the train station from the hotel.

Role A: Tourist

You want to choose a package deal for a weekend vacation.
You call a company that has many different kinds of weekend vacation package deals. You need to ask for the following information:

The different package deals that the company has:

- What each deal includes
- The price of the deals
- Hotels and food

You DO NOT want to buy one of the package deals right now.
You ONLY want information about the package deals.

Role B: Information

You work for a company that sells weekend vacation package deals. A customer calls you to ask for information about the package deals that you have. Right now, there are only two deals left for this weekend:

Package Deal #1: New York City Sightseeing

- Includes breakfast, lunch, and hotels
- Customer chooses what they want to see (Empire State Building, museums, etc.)
- Price: $400 per person

Package Deal #2: Ocean and Beaches

- Includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner
- Two kinds of hotel rooms: big (two beds), small (one bed)
- Hotel is on the beach
- Price: $300 per person